

For Immediate Release:

February 27, 2008

For more information contact:

Kathy Dwyer, 378-0824

Gillette, Vanderlyke Join Sugarman Law Firm

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - - - Joshua Gillette, Esq. and Amy Vanderlyke, Esq. recently joined Sugarman Law Firm as associates.

A graduate of Syracuse University (SU) College of Law, Amy holds master's degrees in new media and journalism from S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, SU and instructional design, development and evaluation from SU School of Education; and a bachelor's in journalism from SUNY-Oswego.

A member of the Onondaga County Bar Association, Amy's area of practice include: injured persons, motor vehicle accidents, wrongful death, and insurance benefits claims. She is an adjunct professor of media law at SUNY-Oswego and volunteers her time with Make-A-Wish of Central New York. She is a resident of Fayetteville.

Josh is a graduate of Michigan State University and holds bachelor's degrees in history and political science pre-law; and his juris doctor from Syracuse University College of Law.

Josh is a member of the Onondaga County Bar Association and the New York State Academy of Trial Lawyers. His areas of practice include accident/personal injury, premises liability, product liability and real estate disputes.

Josh is an advisory board member for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation of Central New York, and also a volunteer for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Central New York. He lives in Eastwood with his wife, Jenni.

"Amy and Josh are terrific assets to the Sugarman team. We look forward to utilizing their broad range of knowledge to provide an exceptional level of service to our clients," said Sam Vulcano, Managing Partner, Sugarman Law Firm.

Sugarman Law Firm provides a full range of legal service to professionals, business owners and individuals, through its offices in Syracuse, Auburn and Buffalo.

###